An Evening with EarthShare California

Sponsorship Packet | 2016

One environment. One simple way to care for it.®

EarthShare California is a statewide non profit that has worked for more than 30 years to connect people and organizations with effective ways to support the environmental causes they care about. EarthShare California helps individuals and public and private sector entities invest in public priorities such as community health and welfare; protection of our air, water and open spaces; energy conservation; wildlife preservation; and much more.
